

CREATIVE IMPACT Ministries

HERE WE GO!

On September 1, 2012, Creative Impact Ministries transitions from a distant dream to a present reality!

State Of The Mission

As a result of God's provision through generous partners, we have assembled most of the gear we need to begin shooting video in earnest.

The only major purchase remaining is a second camera. The one we have is a good one. But if it were damaged or began to malfunction in a remote area, our canoe would not have a paddle (in a manner of speaking). An entire video campaign might be wasted for lack of a backup camera.

So we will need to add a second camera before we fly to Thailand.

A second camera will also be useful for shooting two different (and interesting!) angles of the same scene.

Navajo Children

Arizona Missionaries

As mentioned in previous communications, we will begin by doing some stateside projects.

In September, we will do a project in Arizona for Immanuel Mission.

Who are they and what do they do? Glad you asked. That's precisely why we are making a video for them!

We also hope to produce a video for our friends, Pastor Floyd and Doris Tsinnijinnie to benefit Navajo Christian Church in Red Mesa, AZ.

Immanuel Mission is a Christian school and church. They bring a witness to Christ far from any paved roads on the Navajo Reservation.

The teachers and staff raise their own support. We will help them communicate with supporters and potential partners.

Navajo Christian Church was founded by David Scates (Lynn's father) in the late 1960's.

Testimony To Your Town

You may have seen a short video about Good Catch Publishing on our website. We are absolutely thrilled to be able to promote this ministry which provides the local church a way to share their testimonies with their communities.

Lynn & Jim Adams

This approach makes a lot of sense to us.

From Oct. 22–Nov. 2, we will be shooting video for Good Catch in several locations in Oregon, Washington and Idaho.

We may also get to California for a project!

EVEN BEFORE WE LEAVE THE U.S.A., GOD IS USING THIS MINISTRY!

S.E. Asia In Early 2013

Did we mention that Lynn is going full time in September?

Her administrative gifting will enable us to begin arranging the details of our planned trip to Thailand and Myanmar in support of several missionaries doing church-planting and leadership training work there.

So Here We Go... Again

So much has changed.

After 36 years we return to our first calling – but with a ministry that is astonishingly different than anything we could ever have predicted.

We are so grateful for all the partners God has gathered to support this work. What an amazing team!

Adams Family Reunion, July 2012

Thank you!
For caring...
For praying...
For giving to this ministry that will bless Christ's servants who are sharing His love and saving power even to the ends of the earth.

THANKS!
