We believe that:

- Missionaries have amazing stories that need to be told.
- True partnership between missionary and supporter happens when there is a heart-felt connection established.
- Video, when done right, gives viewers an experience with the missionary that can help build this heart-felt connection.
- Video plus custom, personalized lessons can make that connection intergenerational – involving even children and youth in the mission.

Who Are We?

We are Jim & Lynn Adams. In 2012 we celebrated 38 years of marriage and ministry.

After two years in Central and South America doing leadership support and training for church-planting indigenous pastors, we returned to finish Bible college in 1978. After college we served as lead pastors in California, North Dakota, Minnesota and Idaho. We pastored Cornerstone Worship Center (Foursquare) in Nampa, ID for 20 years (1992–2012).

Lynn is the daughter of missionaries who served on the Navajo Nation.

Jim is an ordained Foursquare pastor who still serves his home church as Assistant Pastor (when in Idaho).

On September 1, 2012 we completed a 3-year-long process of transitioning Cornerstone to new pastoral leadership. At the same time we began preparing to make regular trips to the field.
