

Andy & Rebekah met in Nashville, TN and were married in 2008.
They moved from Nashville to Nampa, ID in 2013.

Rebekah

Rebekah grew up in NW Indiana, the daughter of a pastor. She's a graduate of Trevecca Nazarene University in Nashville with bachelors degrees in communication and social work as well as a masters in counseling. Rebekah is a worship leader in our local church and she and Andy lead a home group together. Rebekah's first focus of ministry is to her family which includes Adelaide (4) and Eli (2).

Rebekah is a wordsmith and she is able to bring that extra set of ears and eyes for all of our communication needs, which are many and varied. CIM's website, newsletters, and social media pages will all receive an expert touch from Rebekah. We will also rely on her for some of the pre-production interviews for potential films.

ANDY

Andy has worked as an audio engineer for over ten years. After graduating from the Conservatory of Recording Arts & Sciences (Phoenix, AZ), Andy moved to Nashville to intern at a commercial recording studio. In Nashville, Andy held staff positions as a production/post-production audio engineer for Rivet Productions (a small film company) and as the Technical Arts Director for New Song Community Church. For the past three years in the Boise, ID area, Andy has been on staff at Integrity Audio Visual where he's worked in corporate productions as an audio engineer, video engineer as well as lighting and backdrop design, traveling all over the USA for Fortune 100 companies. Currently Andy is serving in a volunteer position as the Worship Arts Director for our local church in Nampa. Andy is a "systems guy" and has the gifts needed for learning camera operation and editing. Just like his Dad, Andy's a musician and has an eye for artistic work.

Above all, Andy and Rebekah are committed to serving Jesus and His Great Commission.

As of May 1, Andy and Rebekah are now CIM team members. This is a time of transition where we are working together to develop the best way for them to become full-time, partner-supported missionaries. The first steps are: 1) they have temporarily moved into our home, and 2) Andy freed up some time for CIM training by switching to freelance production work. We are working diligently so that we can be ready to serve together as soon as possible.

BIG NEWS from Creative Impact Ministries!

Four years ago we stepped out in FAITH to pioneer a kind of ministry that we'd never seen anyone else doing. From the very start we knew that we needed to mentor others to make a positive impact for Christ by creatively telling missionary stories.

We have always had our "antennas up," praying and looking for whom that might be. We also knew that our son Andy and his wife Rebekah would be a great fit if God called them. In early 2015 we asked Andy & Rebekah to consider joining the CIM team. Their initial responses didn't give us much encouragement, so we laid that aside and just kept looking and waiting.

In our last newsletter, we shared our intention to grow the CIM team. At that time we didn't have any indication of the outcome. It turns out that the Lord put it all together in a way we couldn't, and now it's official: Our new CIM team members are Andy & Rebekah Adams!

This was a serious decision - not taken lightly. We are first and foremost ministers of Jesus Christ and we want to be about His business and not our own. YOU are a significant team member also. Your prayers and support make this possible. CIM would not exist without YOU.

Creative Impact Ministries is a non-profit ministry founded by Jim & Lynn Adams in 2012. We serve global missionaries. We receive our legal non-profit status under the umbrella of our local congregation in Nampa, ID. The Church Council of Cornerstone Worship Center oversees our budget for compensation, checking account and monthly financial reports.

Andy & Rebekah Adams will function in the same way. All tax-deductible gifts they receive will be deposited in the checking account of Creative Impact Ministries.
